

Under Armour Custom Appliance Direct Sale Process - Canada.

The option to purchase direct from the Bite Tech Lab is a new and exciting opportunity for your office. The pricing and convenience will allow your office to offer this to more of your patients. As an Under Armour provider the direct cost per appliance to you is $130.00 USD per case. This does not include shipment of the order to the lab. Your office can select the most convenient shipping provider that meets your needs. Bite Tech will include the cost of standard USPS shipping back to your office at no additional cost.

Essentially, your office pays the shipping to us and we pay the shipping back to you. The payment for your order will be processed via credit card upon case acceptance at our lab. Once payment is received the order will be made and shipped back to your office.

Please follow the steps below in-order for direct purchase case submission
